The 10th Biennial North American Open Show

PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT

The New England Watercolor Society's 10th Biennial National North American Open demonstrates most vividly the profound diversity and beauty of our magnificent medium. The Society is honored to have our esteemed juror, Frank Webb carefully and thoughtfully select from among so many very worthy entries.

We extend our sincere appreciation to the many sponsors and award donors' most kind and generous support. A very special thanks to the wonderful hospitality of Carol Mortimore, Gallery Director and her staff for the privilege of exhibiting at the North Shore Arts Association. To the most dedicated and tireless Chairman, Bob Jorgensen and his terrific team of Jack Haran, and Becky Haletky, congratulations on making this exhibition such an outstanding one. To all the volunteers and the Board of Directors, whose time and guidance was an essential component, a most heartfelt "Thank You" for a job very well done."

Mike Mazer and Marla Greenfield
Co-Presidents of NEWS

JUROR OF ACCEPTANCE & AWARDS

Frank Webb A.W.S. (DF) N.W.S.

Frank Webb brings forty years of experience as a painter, juror, lecturer and writer. His unique approach to watercolor painting goes beyond the technical, expressing his interest in creative concept and design principals. Author of three books: Watercolor Energies, Webb on Watercolor and Strengthen your Painting with Dynamic Composition, he has taught hundreds of workshops in 50 states and around the world. His paintings have won over 90 major awards, including The Bronze Medal of Honor from the American Watercolor Society.

A painting by Gretchen Krause is among the 80 watercolors on exhibit at the New Bedford Art Museum.

"Masters of Watercolor," now showing in the New Bedford Art Museum's Skylight and Upper Vault galleries, highlights the unexpected beauty found in everyday life.

The 80 paintings in this exhibit were created by 51 members of the New England Watercolor Society and selected by guest curator Vera L. Cross.

The subject matter on display runs the gamut from closeup and full-length portraits, to landscapes like country farms and city streets, to clusters of vegetables and leaves, to non-representational shapes and patterns. The moods in the paintings vary widely too, from delicate lavender shadows draped across snowy slopes to the neon flash of a seafood restaurant sign. This diverse range is unified by the artists' dazzling technical skills, as well as their desire to reveal the magical qualities of day-to-day experience.

The New England Watercolor Society proudly presents a three day workshop by

FRANK WEBB October 3 – 5, 2006

at the North Shore Arts Association in Gloucester, Massachusetts

Going beyond the usual technical display of watercolor, Webb's paintings express his interest in the creative concept and design principles. Since in his own words, "Painting is more caught than taught," he stresses the importance of seeing, feeling, and responding to possibilities while synthesizing realism with abstractionism. Webb covers a broad spectrum of subjects beyond traditional landscapes.

Forty years as a professional artist back up Webb's current activities in painting, lecturing, jurying and writing. As an invited instructor he has conducted hundreds of workshops in 50 states and throughout the world.

His more than ninety major awards include: the Bronze Medal of Honor, the Walser Greathouse Medal, and the Mary Pleissner award of the American Watercolor Society; the Grumbacher Gold Medal of the National Watercolor Society; the gold medal of Audubon Artists; and the Sisek purchase award of the Butler Midyear. He has represented the American Watercolor Society in international exhibitions in Canada, New York, England, Scotland, Mexico, and has participated in invitational in Australia and the Republic of China.

" All of my work proceeds from on-the-spot graphite drawings made from travels in 50 states and 23 countries. Each drawing is edited, fused with design principles, and used as the model. With large flat brushes and plenty of water I approach the paper in slam-bang initial washes, and end with the caress of a butterfly wing. Fused into the paint is my delight as qualities and relations emerge from the process. Thus, a new reality is re-created which began with observation but goes beyond what is to what ought to be."
